

9/11 Five Years Later

“The pictures of airplanes flying into buildings, fires burning, huge structures collapsing, have filled us with disbelief, terrible sadness, and a quiet, unyielding anger. These acts of mass murder were intended to frighten our nation into chaos and retreat. But they have failed; our country is strong. Great people have been moved to defend a great nation. Terrorist attacks can shake the foundations of our biggest buildings, but they cannot touch the foundation of America. These acts shattered steel, but they cannot dent the steel of American resolve.”

*- President George W. Bush,
September 11, 2001 Address to the Nation*

As years pass, time does seem to heal. As a nation it is important that we never let the sadness of the worst terrorist act on our Nations soil pass without remembrance of the 2,992 men, women and children that lost their lives that September morning.

On that morning many very brave Law Enforcement officers, firefighters and citizens rushed to save the lives of complete strangers while putting themselves in the face of danger. Unfortunately some of those heroes lost their lives while saving others.

In remembrance of the fallen heroes that gave their lives for others, Spokane Law Enforcement Credit Union will be offering our commemorative poster that we created five years ago to the first 100 members that stop by the credit union to claim one. This is our way of giving back to you, our hero. Together we will not forget!
